

Western States Hockey League Announces The Following Changes For The 2018-2019 Season

WEST SOUND ADMIRALS -

West Sound Warriors will take on a new name and management. Veteran GM/Coach Dave Daniello will head up a new management team operating the "West Sound Admirals". The Admirals will continue to call home ice at the Bremerton Ice Center. The Admirals are looking forward to continuing in the community of Bremerton and putting the team at the top of the Northwest Division. Coach Daniello can be reached at: dave.daniello@gmail.com

CASPER BOBCATS -

The Casper Wyoming will welcome the revised Western States Hockey League team the "Casper Bobcats" under new management for the 2018-2019 season. Casper resident, business owner Jason Shierkolk acting as Managing Member along with his partners will continue WSHL action in Casper for the 2018-2019 season and beyond. It has been reported that the Bobcats management have convinced former Head Coach John Ambrefe to return to Casper to again take the reins as Head Coach. Coach Ambrefe is looking forward to bringing the Casper Bobcats back to the forefront in the Mountain Division of the WSHL. Coach Ambrefe can be reached at: jjambrefe@gmail.com

